

Statement of Purpose

My purpose is to touch hearts, open minds, awaken dreams, and inspire people through the power of music, lyrics, speaking, and presence.

The power that created the planets, the stars, and everything in between lives inside me. I am an infinite being, and with my limitless abilities and gifts, I generate opportunities in my life that come to me not through force, but as a natural outcome of my beingness.

Every person and event on my journey aligns to support the attraction of abundance in my life. With this abundance of vibrant health, joy, creativity, wisdom, inspiration, and prosperity, I share this with others freely. In doing so, I help to raise the consciousness of individuals and communities around the world.

As my message and light spreads, the ripple effect of my purpose reaches millions of lives and elevates humanity so that people default to love and fear dissolves.

I am detached to any and all outcomes and trust that this beautiful unfolding is something that is already written in the stars and I am simply a conduit for it to happen.

I am an instrument of love and I embrace this responsibility with humility and gratitude. I share my message in ways that bring me the greatest joy so that others can find theirs.
